

Cultural Mapping

Jennifer Joi Field & Associates

Providing facilitation and training services to the Natural Resource Industries, who aspire to benefit their local communities.

Community engagement specialist Jennifer Joi Field can deliver a variety of exclusive training to support staff in their work with Indigenous and Multicultural communities.

Specialising in facilitating:

- Community engagement
- Understanding of how cultural difference can be applied as leverage in shared environments
- Mapping local knowledge
- Sustainable community renewals
- Collaboration and partnerships
- Enterprise development

Professional Development of Staff

Practical workshops and specialist training can be delivered to staff over full or half days.

Topics include:

- Negotiating the community maze – who to consult?
- Understanding and working with cultural difference
- Communicating your messages more effectively
- Negotiating conflict in shared environments
- Community research methods that engage not alienate
- Mapping local and stakeholder knowledge
- Establishing sustainable community programs
- Identifying new opportunities in shared environments

Contact: Jennifer Joi Field

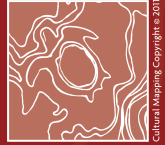

GPO Box 268 Melbourne 3001

Phone 0428 500 548 Email: jennifer@culturalmapping.com

www.culturalmapping.com

Cultural Mapping

Jennifer Joi Field & Associates

Providing facilitation and training services to the Natural Resource Industries, who aspire to benefit their local communities.

Specialist knowledge based on years of professional practice with remote and regional communities backed up by years of research:

- Twenty years of professional observation, development and facilitation of, community and stakeholder partnerships
- Ten years of independent and Postgraduate Research investigating the efforts and outcomes of community and stakeholder relations

Examples of prior relationships facilitated successfully are:

- Landgate WA with Purnululu Independent Aboriginal School
- Australian Red Cross with remote and regional Aboriginal Cooperatives, resulted in the first ARCV Aboriginal Program
- Narana Cultural Learning Centre with 20 potential partners including Gordon TAFE (Environment) and William Angliss TAFE (Hospitality) culminating in the Forum
- Rio Tinto with Ngali Ngalm Purru and the Australian National Museum
- Australian Red Cross with Geelong Public Hospital (Emergency Department)
- Kalakar Artist Trust India with Deakin University
- Cooperative Research Centre for Spatial Information with the Honourable Jenny Macklin MP

Partnership Forum Narana

Contact: Jennifer Joi Field

GPO Box 268 Melbourne 3001

Phone 0428 500 548 Email: jennifer@culturalmapping.com

www.culturalmapping.com

Cultural Mapping Copyright © 2011